IPWSO will host the 6th International PWS Caregivers' Conference from May 21 to 23, 2024, in Berlin, Germany.

Based on past Caregivers' Conferences, we anticipate over 100 in person delegates from Europe and around the world. Most delegates will be professional caregivers working with adults, children and young people with PWS. Some medical and allied health professionals are also expected.

IPWSO will circulate information about the conference to its contacts in more than 120 countries and will advertise it widely on social media and at upcoming events. Resources from the conference will be made available online after the event both to delegates and the broad IPWSO community.

The following sponsorship packages are available...
